Franc. M. Paul.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, MARCH 25, 1863.

THE SOUTHERN STATES.

from our exchanges of the several States of paign. Yesterday was a grand gala day with the Confederacy, presents the "situation" of affairs, in brief:

VIRGINIA.

All is quiet in the neighborhood of Fredericksburg. A correspondent of the Richmo Sentinel, writing from the headquarters of the army, near Petersburg, says:

It may be said that we are doing nothing, there is no enemy in our front, no picketing or other active duty to do, consequently there is not little of interest in that quarter. This is so, and would remain true months hence if events would only stand still; but there being no probability or possibility of this, it may be gratifying to know something of our condition for the coming campaign, which a few days will usher in

NORTH CAROLINA.

The Wilmington Journal, of the 19th, learns to Nassau, has fallen into the hands of the African persuasion, greeted the eye in every large shield: enemy. Everything along the lines below direction, It seemed Kinston we are assured is very quiet. A warehouse containing corn, forage and salt was burned in Wilmington on Saturday night. The loss is not stated.

Gen. Hill's forces are at the present time.

clude all is quiet along the coast.

On Tuesday morning a detachment of Geor- screamed as if they were bent on blowing out the reeling battalions of the enemy confess this heavy fire of grape, cannister and shell, for near ly two hours. At 5 o clock, a courser from Capt. like corn-stalks in front of their companies and insolent invader of their country, the 20th Westcott amounced that the enemy had appeared in gruffly mutter commands to their men without Tennessee was again seen in the van of the movement, the Mojor ordered his command to fall turning their heads. But the curious unmanibative. At Murfreesboro', whether on the back about a hundred and firty yards, and there are ly soldiers will steal an opportunity and left of Stone River among the bloody codare, soon appeared between 400 and 500 strong, consisting peep slyly down the line to see the fun.

Whoop! Hurrall Here they come with of January which laid low many anoble spir-

The same paper of the same date says: Pive Yankees belonging to the Seventh New Hamp company, commanded by Sergeant Cox, and are now in sale custody as prisoners of war.

Accounts from Yazoo river show that Gen. Loring is making a gallant defence of Greenwood. The enemy have advanced twice and ground in White's field. There were but usports and the seem during some of them were raising steam to be seem during hand of man can never blot them out.

I stroll on. The troops shift position and the Southern Confederacy !"

I stroll on. The troops shift position and the seem of the 17th says:

PROM MUDDLE TEXPESSEE.

TULL AHORA, TENN. March 20, 1863. Dear Rebel: We have had a perfect floodtide of soft Spring sunshine for many days. Blue-birds are beginning to carol and now and then we see green tender blades of grass peeping tamidly out of the earth. This spirit of requireation has touched the hearts of our boys and full of the fresh inspiration they listen The following compilation of war news eagerly for the first notes of the Spring camus. General Johnston having assumed immediate command of the forces in Middle Tennes see, announced a review of the entire army at war. this point yesterday. It was a novely to nearly all of us, and full of delight and interest. The day broke brightly and beautifully for the occasion and long ere the sun had swept the mists from the curth, long lines of bristled like a stubble-field with sturdy war-

> " As If the yawning hills to heaven. A subtervauean bost had given."

Whoop! Hurrah! Here they come with of January which laid low many a noble spir-They opened upon our forces with four pieces of arlevy which they brought with them on the Road, d posted themselves about one hundred yards disnt. At this range our boys opened upon them with ch accuracy that, though protected by cover of the
ch accuracy that, though protected by cover of the
cods, they could not withstand it, and in less than an hour they were glad to retreat back under their black stallion; Lt. Gen. Hardee, stern and se- decided I feel assured with no offensive disvere, yet a sly twinkling of his merry blue crimination, to confer upon the 20th Tenace eye reveals a bold, romping, sollicking spirit, see regiment this beautiful banner wrongitt General Breckinridge, a very beam of chivalry, by the fair hands of the most distinguished and a host of gaudy sids. But they are gone, women of Kentucky. I feel that I may safely Drums thunder along the dark line and flags undertake to declare it is the opinion of those stoop in graceful salute. Well, this is a grand ladies that to no more deserving and loyal Ever since the vigorous demoi stration of review and the first I ever saw. If it should custody could this emblem of our-cause be the enemy upon Genesis Point was success- occur every day in the week it would still be confided and let me fellow-soldiers assure you names have been fully resisted by the gallant little band within interesting. Every soul would be spurred for that the men of Kentucky share their opin- new will smulate the gall

Some of them were of rich, beautiful silk, the is confided. While there is a pulse in the work of our glerious women, confided by heart of a member of the 20th Tennessee, they them to their brothers, husbands and sweet- feel assured that this emblem will be cherishbearts when the bugle first gathered the clans, ed and guarded as more precious than life. In but now they are weather-stained, faded and this confidence, I as their representative comeach time been driven back, Our loss thus bullet-torn. Many of them were blue Confed mit this banner to your keeping. I believe in the object of the confed mit this banner to your keeping. I believe in the confed mit this banner to your keeping. far is quite small. The Vicksburg Whig, of erate baltle flags, full of death's harvest-home, that history has afready determined the com-Ah! but these thousand freshly made graves mon political fate of Kentucky and Tennessee, monds in every State are pledges of our free and that this simple ceremony here to-day, is dom. Every heart in the South makes a weary but the symbol of the affiliation of two mil-redging machine clear the arena. The field is transformed. A nessee, received the flag, and turning his eye war to be any str. mimic battle is being fought. Long serried upon its fluttering folds said:—

around for a conservative tree. What a glo-rious thing fighting would be if nebody was burt. Perhaps the inventive faculties of the presented it, I thank you.

part of the field, and like Paul Pry "I will just colors of Kentucky as they would by the stand-drop in to see what's going on." A hollow and of their native State. They feel that their square is formed; Gen'ls Johnston, Hardee, honor their glory, their safety, their people gray uniforms and glistening bayonets were respective staffs; carriages filled with bright. Thus closed the review. Asking a thous pourieg into the broad open field near town. eved girls have drawn near; Gov. Harris is and pardons for trespassing so long upon your there and his face brightens into a smile like patience, I will close. Accept a renewed as For two hours the various long dark flowing old times. I edged my way through the crowd surance of my most distinguished considera-Be it known that for health, strength and high flow of spirits, this army never was in better condition. Babel fashion. Sabres and spurs clanked as spensibilities of their position as defenders of our gaily caparisoned chargers, blazing with loads. gaily caparisoned chargers, blazing with loads of lace, champed their bits and pranced and curvetred, impatient for the rising of the curtain. Christian citizens of the curtain Christian citizens of the curtain the war. The flar was formed of heartist. the war. The flag was formed of beautiful Those named below are in fail in Warren county The Wilmington Journal, of the 19th, learns lain Curious citizens in gingerbread jeans that the schooner St. Georgeos from that Port stern-visaged soldiers, and colored people of white and red silk, made in triangles, the Name Slave. Owner,

"I have a duty devolving upon me to-day, which I esteem an honor, and perform with Jerry. pleasure. I am deputied to present to you a flag Ned. The trees and house tops were filled with wrought by the hands of a lady of Kentucky. Pelix, The Raleigh Progress, of the 19th, says:

We learn from an intelligent officer just from Weldon, that a brisk skirmish took place at Franklin, an Friday, in which the Yankees were worsted. The encept loss was only 2 slightly wounded. A regiment of cour troops ambushed the enemy and were apon them, before they knew it. Our informant was not able to produce the produce to the find and the find The Wilmington Journal of Wednesday says: gathered in a vastly delightful profusion, hopes of home to devote their lives and Adding We regret to learn from a gentleman who knows, that General Hill's expedition towards. Newborn tall to the accomplish one of its main objects—that of their plunging lire into our ranks! But our assured appreciation of their illustrious comments of the enemy out.

At Deep Gully, the miles from Newborn, Gan. Hill boys stood it like heroes. Not a man budged, mander and countrymen, and with the proud encountered a force of the enemy, consisting of two Many of them suffering from an attack of the consciousness of having nobly done their duertwo from Murfreesborn, Tenn. Here a brisk fight was kept up for a short time when the nearly reteasted in the direction of Newbern.

About this time Gen. Pettigrew being on the North side of the North river, opened on an earthwork on the South side of the river; but, in consequence of an accident to one of his gens, which requence of an accident to one of his gens, which remembers to the enemy, he had to retire.

These were chiefly officers of a high grade, for under the present regime a soldier with less other Stafe that the honor of bearing this flag ments to the enemy, he had to retire.

These were chiefly officers of a high grade, for under the present regime a soldier with less other Stafe that the honor of bearing this flag will be more appropriately confided. And the Dots, of Prankin County, Ala.

Several transports arrived at Newberns on Saturday evening. General Inspects of the present regime a soldier with less other Stafe that the honor of bearing this flag will be more appropriately confided. And the Dots, of Prankin County, Ala.

Several transports arrived at Newberns on Saturday evening. General laberison is reported to have acceeded in getting possession of the rail road belong to Mrs. Williamson county, Irans. Tom. and the common cause leaves no criterion by which their General might distinguish among them the common cause leaves no criterion by which should be head to be long to Mrs. Vis. These were chiefly officers of a high grade, for under the present regime a soldier with less other Stafe that the honor of bearing this flag support their General might distinguish among them their General might distinguish among them the common of the common them es brisk fight was kept up for a short time when calico proclivity recklessly approached within ty and their constant and equal devotion to In Hard mand, and his horse was not strack with Minie balls, hist burst of morning was blooming with sweet their gallant conduct under his own eye in as telegraphed from Raleigh. In fact there has been flowers. The low-laughing eyes and foot-re-many a stricken field. After mature consid cing smiles made the occasion as merry as eration, however, in view of its uniform galwhich, so far, is barren of results, and which, as we cing smiles made the occasion as merry as eration, however, in view of its uniform gal-have every reason to believe, never was intended for Christmas bells. I was just reflecting how lantry and length of service under his com a direct attack upon Newbern.

We know but do not think it proper to say, where very provoking it would have been if, our mind, he has concluded that it is upon the roverend grand-mother Eve, in her coy girlish 20th Tennessee Regiment that these colors Ky., are three negro men and three her roverend grand-mother Eve, in her coy girlish 20th Tennessee Regiment that these colors are three negro men and three her panels from the Yankee Grand-mother Eve, in her coy girlish 20th Tennessee Regiment that these colors SOUTH CAROLINA.

days, when her lips pouted prettily for kissing, will be most properly bestowed. In the first Negly, who came in sight of Chattanooga last sum our Charleston exchanges are silent on the had cornetted our grand-sire Adam, and he in memorable battle on the soil of Kentucky, in obsdiah Haverron, who lives in Sweeden's Cove. military situation at that point, and we conhis boyish awkwardness and verdancy had this war, the 20th Tennessee was signalized Tenn, and the others. E. Johnson, who resworn never to marry! I had just reached by its devoted patriotism and disciplined valor. this stage of my cogitations when the bass At Fishing Creek when the sternest were dis-From the beautiful "land of the cypress and and kettle-drums began to war and rattle like mayed, and the timid yielded to the panic, myrtle," we have fuller accounts of the late a bunch of thunder bolts, set off squib fashion the gallantry of the 29th Tennessee shone of the late a bunch of thunder bolts, set off squib fashion the gallantry of the 29th Tennessee shone of the late a bunch of thunder bolts, set off squib fashion the gallantry of the 29th Tennessee shone of the late a bunch of thunder bolts, set off squib fashion the gallantry of the late a bunch of thunder bolts, set off squib fashion the gallantry of the late a bunch of thunder bolts, set off squib fashion the gallantry of the late a bunch of thunder bolts. engagement with the enemy at Jacksonville, among the crags of a mountain, and the lifes forth with conspicuous lustre. At Shileh, when gians approached Jacksonville and had a sharp their last note. What a rattle of sounding the superiority of Southern valor, the bacwhich they fully sustained the reputation of speed! Colonels shout out to their men, eyes foremost in that bloody struggle. At the Battery of Light Artillery sent by Gen. Bragg to Gen. their gallant State for daring and enterprise. front! and square themselves as bolt upright bombardment of Vicksbury throughout the Beauregard : The Lake City Columbian, of the 19th, of this in their saddles, and look as still and grim, as sulphurous carnival that raged so many days if by mistake, they had swallowed a lightening and nights around that heroic city, the 20th About half past three o'clock, the enemy's artillery rod. Company officers, confident that the at- Tennessee stood baring its scarred front to the ommenced a cross fire from their entrenchments from a portion of Mejor Brevard's Battalon, Lou tention of the Generals and their cortege will storm of shot and shell. At Baton Rouge be aimed directly at them, plant themselves when our Southern chivalry rushed upon the

to Yazon Pass where all the spare troops will no doubt be sent. Let us not, however, relax ear right among the conduct the sight almost chills the blood. The common mand "double-quick, charge!" rings out, and ful flag. My language does not permit me to many mand "double-quick, charge!" rings out, and with wild furious yells they deah forward upon who has been dangerously ill since his arrival the imaginary foer. Frantic shouts break from pliment, unexpected as it is, is doubly please at home, is recovering.

Colonic: In behalf of the officers and namenting the borders allotted to them."

The sight almost chills the blood. The common soldiers of my regiment, I accept this beauting the borders allotted to them."

The sight almost chills the blood. The common ful flag. My language does not permit me to the pear. "Mr. E. M. Bolton, of Warington, inform with wild furious yells they deah forward upon the imaginary foer. Frantic shouts break from pliment, unexpected as it is, is doubly please the vast multitude of spectators: and officers, ing, coming as it does from Kentucky, the witnesses can testify to the truth of the above."

generals and all fired with memories of Shi-loh, Perryville and Murfreesbore, are sub-daughters. A State whose name is linked marged in the excitement, and rush forward, with the brightest jewels of American history, waiving their caps and swords in the sir, her women are as lovely as her modulain nouting onward! I could almost hear the flowers. For my officers and soldiers, I thank villainous bullets plough the earth and splinter you. When the storm of battle rages fercest the twigs about me, and I instinctively looked amid the wildest conflict, we will think of the blue lip puritans will frump up some pleasant Soldiers! to you I commit this gift. In its little device as a substitute for steel and saft. folds rests your honor. Let it never be conpetre before they deal the cards for another taminated by a forman's hand. Let the Confederaty and the world see that in the hour of But the masses are drifting toward another her darkest trials, Tennessee will stand by the like a small boy with a basket of pies. A flag tion. Mrsr Julys.

skirmish with the enemy in the suburbs, in hoofs! Yonder they come at the top of their ners of the 20th Tennesses were among the Carolina Georgia and Florida, in cornection with a the fort, no further effort has been made for the conflict.

ions, and endorse their award. They feel so gleriously died in the defence of these great principles of civil liberty, without the fall enjoyment of from Savanneh.

I strutted along the line to look at the flags, also, that it is to no alien hands that this trust which life would become intolerable.

Very respectfully and truly,

G. T. HEAUREGARD.

Gen. SEARTON BRAGO, Comd g., Tullaboma, Tenn.

TELEGRAPHIC.

ARSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCHES. Richardyn, March 21.- The Senate is not i

ficiency of heavy artillery for coast dele

and then went into secret accesson on the tax

cads are in a miserable condition from ano

CHARLESTON, S. C., March 22 - The enem have been shelling the wreck of the Georgia whileh still lies off Long Island ; otherwise all Vacaseno, Mucch 21 .- The gunbeuts Hart ord and Monongahela passed Warrento bout six o'clock this exening, after a heavy canonading of an hour, distinctly heard at this lace, and are now anchored below the city at nede a point.

New Adbertisements.

WANTED TO RENT.

200,000 ACRES OF LAND FOR SALE AT AUCTION.

Plorids, Atlantic & Gulf Central Itali Road y; which I shall offer for sale at Lake City.

On Wednesday the 13th of May, 1863. These Lands are valuable for purposes of cultivation (many of them.) others for timber, turpesting and tar-situated in the most healthful pertion of the State, and offer great indusements to persons dispose to invest money in lands. Private sales will be made until the day of sale.

WM. O. SEFFREYS.

HEADQUARTER VOL. AND CONSCRIP BUREAU. A LL afficers, acting under orders from the Volunter and Constript Bureau, Army of Tempessee in this sat-department, are hereby ordered to suspend all efforts in the enforcement of the Constript Law. They will continue to gather up strugglers and describes, and receive volunteers, until surther orders.

By Command M. MaGEVNEY, Jr.,

Capt. S. R. Bunwan, Col. Cound's Bender.

Capt. S. R. Bunwan, Col. Cound's Bender.

KHATTANDOGA, Murch 23, 1863.

CHATTAS 1004. March 21, 1861.

FRESH ARRIVALS. DLANTERS C. S. Hoss, Garden Hoss asserted choice Syrap by the bhl., 100 sacks geoms 0. B. P. WAYNE.

WANTED.

WE want to bye two large males, a good two beam WALKER & SPENCER.

MILITARY BLANKS

AJEW AUCTION AND COMMISSION HOUSE

SO 102 MAIN ST., LYSCHSCHO, VA.

J. H. WILLY.

POCKET KNIVES.

120 sets Knives and Forks 509 ibs Rope 100 bush Sweet Pointoes,

VIRGINIA SALT.

TO MERCHANTS & SUTLERS.

TAKEN UP

M. J. HUGHES. Attorney at Law, Cisim Agent and Not

BICHMOND - VA.

CLAIMS of every description against the Control rate Government settled with accuracy and disputch. Astends all the Confederate States courseld in the city of Hickmond. Address Box 1160.

DISSOLUTION

McDANIKL & BURL LYNCHBURG, VIEGINIA

COMMISSION MERCHANTS
And Agents for the enle of Bew Ordenns Bugge and Molassen,
Manufactured and Sunciring Token
83. We invite altention to our market as being beapest for tobacco in the State, with great adv
ages in shipping to interi or merchants.
dec17-4m.

TAKEN UP

DESERTERS ... S30 REWARD.

the eyes; residence in Hamilton County Transmer-John D. Hübding, Ist Lieut., County Co. (D) 37th Tenn. Begt. Mosto Wmire, Col. Comd'g lith Tenn marfillw) Property of the Dead.

S100 REWARD.

CIRCULAR.

Elake.

8600 REWARD.

Pres'l L. M. & M. Co., Ellowah, Ga